

Press Release- for immediate release

Transforming Conflict into Courageous Collaboration

Celestial Self Development Centre has collaborated with Bridges Global a consultancy company based in Ontario, Canada to present a one day workshop entitled “Leadership Excellence: Transforming Conflict into Courageous Collaboration”.

This highly engaging workshop is designed for all leaders, regardless of role, who understand that relational intelligence is the key to catalyzing people into inspired action. Since differences are inevitable, conflict mastery is a crucial skill-set that makes or breaks our ability to have impact.

Bridges Global works with leaders who want to unleash people potential. It is through nurturing relationships that we innovate, excel and thrive. Bridges Global offers a comprehensive set of consulting services which are designed to bridge individual growth to organizational and community growth.

The workshop will be facilitated by founder and Director of Bridges Global, Ms. Elizabeth Soltis, a gifted consultant, facilitator and coach.

Elizabeth is a dedicated facilitator with expertise in leadership development, teamwork, emotional intelligence, partnership-building, conflict resolution and high performance. She has a keen interest in bridging transformative leadership to positive change results. In all sectors, Elizabeth support clients in collaborating and innovating, conversing about issues that matter. As a courageous doer and thinker, she helps teams define where they are now, where they want to be and an empowering path to get there. Her mission is to co-create workplaces where people can thrive.

Join us in this dynamic conversation intended to support leaders in reframing conflict as an opportunity for healthy collaboration at the Palm Haven Hotel, Rodney Bay on Wednesday 1st March 2017 from 9:00am to 4:30pm.

For more information and to register contact Celestial Self Development Centre 453-1924 or celestial@candw.lc.